Des Peres Rotary Holiday Party 2010 Greenbriar Hills Country Club

Nick's News By Nick Roberts

The Romans named the first month of the year after Janus, the god of beginnings and the guardian of doors and entrances. He was always depicted with two faces, one on the front of his head and one on the back. Thus he could look backward and forward at the same time.

It seems the New Year arrived almost too quickly. Did we complete everything on our to-do lists? At work, we must review the past year's performance and set goals for the next twelve months. At home, we begin looking forward to the next round of birthdays, anniversaries, and other special family events. In Rotary, we look forward to all that is to be accomplished.

There is much ahead for our club in 2011. These are grouped into Finance, Membership and Program. The golf tournament is just a few months out with sponsors to be secured and teams filled. An emphasis on identifying new member prospects and inviting them to join our club is essential. New members bring so much energy and excitement into Rotary. We will once again host Inter-city in February. The balance of our calendar is packed with interesting speakers and social events.

Thank you all for your continued support throughout my first six months serving as your president. At times it has been challenging, but always rewarding. Here's to 2011, may it bring many blessings to us all.

BIZ News...and More!

by Fran McDaniel

Ann Bueler, wife of club member Fred Bueler, recently joined Midwest Equipment Company as President. She is responsible for the long-term strategy and overall day-to-day operations of the company. Headquartered in Fenton, Midwest is a distributor of commercial food service equipment. The company primarily distributes Taylor Company freezer and grill equipment and Broaster fryer equipment and food products to institutional, retail and educational markets across Missouri, Kansas, Illinois and parts of Arkansas.

In addition to her recent career change, Ann has been named to the Board of the Ronald McDonald House Charities of St. Louis. Over the last several years, Ann has been involved in the House in several capacities. She founded "Speaking for Charity," a project that provides organizations with training and facilitation services in exchange for speaking fees to be donated to the Ronald McDonald House. This endeavor enables companies and associations to contribute to the charity while educating their enterprise. For more information on Ronald McDonald House Charities, contact Ann at 636-343-0664 ext. 104 or abueler@taylormidwest.com.

Tell us about work news, family milestones, vacations, etc., and we'll get the word out! Secret operatives are urged to share the good stuff you know. Send personal or professional news to Fran McDaniel or to Lynn Bozzay.
